Bylaws

PREAMBLE

These Bylaws were developed in 2020 in an effort to solidify the activities and policies of the McMaster Engineering Society (MES), separate from the Policy Manual. The policies documented here are intended to accompany the Constitution and Policy Manual of the McMaster Engineering Society and are binding terms of reference.

This Bylaw Document will assist in the transition of the MES from year to year, and will also clarify the fundamental operations of the Society. This document is meant to serve as a guide for everyday operations, but is also intended to be a more flexible document than the Constitution, but less so than the Policy Manual. The procedures for amending this document are set out in the Constitution.

Overall this document will help the MES to operate more effectively and efficiently in its effort to represent and serve the undergraduate engineering student body at McMaster.

If a contradiction occurs between the Bylaws and the Constitution, the Constitution will take precedence.
